Sri Lanka Ethnic Fratricide And The Dismantling Of Democracy

The ethnic conflict in Sri Lanka began in earnest after the state-instigated communal violence in July 1983, leaving over 2000 Tamils dead. India became involved in arming and training Tamil groups after the government went back on an agreement with India in November 1983 to implement a political settlement based on devolving powers to the majority Tamil-speaking northern and eastern provinces - the North-East. 2
